

Fifth Grade Newsletter for the Week of May 20, 2024

UPCOMING EVENTS

Wednesday, May 22nd – Civil War Day

Thursday, May 23rd – Last day of school – half-day dismissal. Denim Day. Parents are invited to attend the morning assembly at 8:20 for TCA East's graduation events. Report cards for the second semester will go home with students; for those not present, you may print report cards from Infinite Campus, or pick them up from the office in August.

Lost and Found – Please make one last check of the lost and found. All unclaimed items will be donated.

Library Books – All library books were due last week. Please make one last sweep of nightstands, backpacks, back seats, etc., to make sure all books from the main East library or individual classroom libraries are returned.

Here's a look at the week ahead:

Spelling

There will be no spelling test this week.

Literature

We will wrap up with a discussion of Where the Red Fern Grows, then we'll explore the books on the sixth-grade summer reading list.

Math

We will finish our last unit on Percentages, with Math Test 15 on Tuesday, May 23.

History

We will review the Civil War with a Jeopardy Game.

Science

We end with a review of the human endocrine system and hormones.
