Parents, family, and friends are invited. It will be held in the atrium.

Spelling– Due to the shortened week, we will not have a spelling list.

Math– The test for Chapter 15 is Monday, April 29.

Writing– We continue writing our patriot reports, which are due May 6th. Students may type their report but it is not required.

Reading– We continue reading Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson. This is a historical fiction about the yellow fever epidemic in 1793. Little Britches by Ralph Moody as our read aloud book.

History– We have started our unit on the United States Constitution.

Science– Our unit in science is on the respiratory and circulation systems.

Grammar– In Fix It! Grammar, we continue to identify and mark the parts of speech in our story as we copy it in our notebooks.

Poetry Monthly Recitation–

The April recitation is an excerpt from The Declaration of Independence. Students should have a copy of the excerpt in their planners. The whole 4th grade class will recite this with the 1st graders on May 10th. Parents are welcome to watch the recitation during assembly that morning.

“Nothing can stop the man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal; nothing on earth can help the man with the wrong mental attitude.”

~ Thomas Jefferson
