Grandparents' Day

Grandparents' Day is Thursday, Sept. 14th! Remember, if your child is going out with his/her grandparents, a signed permission slip must be returned to school before Grandparents' Day.

History

In September, students will be learning about the Constitution. In this unit, students will be introduced to the basic functions of the American government: that it is based on the Constitution, the highest law of our land. Students will see government by the consent of the governed: "We the People." Students will also learn about James Madison, the "Father of the Constitution." To put their learning into practice, students will participate in Constitution Day on Friday, September 22nd. Dressing in attire appropriate for this era is encouraged (but not required) on this day.

September Poem

Bed in Summer

~Robert Louis Stevenson~

In winter, I get up at night
And dress by yellow candlelight.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree;
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Sayings for September

Don't cry over spilled milk
Don't judge a book by its cover

. Be looking for ways to bring these into your conversations 😊
